REPORT

On 28th October 2022, the Department of West Asian Studies conducted One day Experiential Learning –Heritage walk with 50 students of third year West Asian Studies along with two faculty members (Dr.Nisar.U & Ms.Haseena K.V)of the Department.They are visited historical places of Tirurangadi-,Hajur Kacheri , Mamburam Mosque and PSMO College. Hajur Kacheri is a historic building located in Tirurangadi Taluk of Malappuram District.Now it is functioning as Taluk office of Tirurangadi,which was once Hajur Kacheri under the British and one of the major administrative centers of the British Government in Malabar region. The building also functioned as the headquarters of a short-lived Khilafat government during the Moplah revolt in 1921.The building premises also has the graves of British soldiers who had laid down their life in the Moplah revolt including the tombstone of W.J.D Rowley,a 28 year-old Assistant Superintendent of Police of Palakkad,in front of the Taluk Office. Though the building is under the Archaeological department,the Taluk Office is still functioning.The state government is planning to declare it as a district heritage site and to convert it in to a museum.

Mamburam Maqam(shrine of Mamburam Thanghal) Mamburam,Tirurangadi is located 26 kms east of Tirur and on the northern bank of Kadalundi river locally known as Panampuzha. The place is renowned for Makham i.e.shrine.This makham was built over the grave of Sayyid Hussain Ibn Alabi Jiffer Thangal,reached Kerala from Thareem in Yemen two centuries ago.He staunchly opposed the social disparities of that time. History honors him not only as a spiritual leader of Malabar but also as a social reformer and freedom fighter.He died in the month of Shahaban in the Hijra year 1169.The Mamburam Nercha,held in memory of Mamburam Thangal near his tomb, takes place once in a year in the month of Muharram lasting for a week.Mamburam maqam is undoubtedly today one of the busiest muslim pilgrim centers in South India.Apart from the shrine ,the Mamburam also boasts Tirurangadi Juma Masjid which has been mentioned in historical documents ,as the masjid from where the local Khilafat leader Ali Musliar used to operate.

As a part of experiential learning, the team also visited PSMO College,Tirurangadi.By this, the students got chance to view the historical collections of PSMO College's History Department Museum. They also got chance to view and analyze the project reports prepared by the students of History Department of PSMO College.
