

AJMALULLUGHA

Maa Ajmalullugha acquaints the young readers with the exquisite literary styles as well as the excellent intellectual ideas of a variety of renowned writers ranging from Kahlil Gibran, the Philosopher of love, to the Palestinian national poet Mahmud Dervish. The book, recommended by the University of Calicut to the students of first semester BA/BSc Under Graduate Courses, not only provides the students opportunity to familiarize with the literary styles of different genre, but it also enables them to develop communicative skill in Arabic language, and especially to converse in the diverse life situations. Since every chapter is provided with adequate language exercise at the end, the book helps the readers to acquire skill for bilingual translation. The author has taken enough care to provide ample student-friendly, simple practical language proficiency tests also, which fulfills the objective of the teaching learning process.
