

DVV CLARIFICATION 7.1.1.1

INTERACTION WITH MERLIN JOSEPH IPS

7NOVEMBER 2016

The external mentoring program significantly supports the career progression and development of female aspirants across the society. It provides girls with opportunities to reflect on and grow their leadership capabilities, build professional skills and more effectively navigate. An inspirational talk by Merin Joseph IPS on how she made her place in the male-dominated world of Policing was organized on 7th November 2016 under the leadership of College Union. Merin Joseph became an IPS officer at the age of 25. Born on April 20, 1990, Joseph had made up her mind to join civil service when she was in her 6th standard. She soon started preparing for the examination and cracked her IPS examination in her first attempt. She loved studying and was a brilliant student. She has become an icon of women empowerment and strong advocate of gender equality. Three years ago a media house did a story where an article mentioned beautiful IPS officers of the country. Merin Joseph raised objections on the fact that women were being judged on the basis of their looks and beauty. She trended on social media. Gradually, people started knowing about the courage and valor of Merin Joseph and soon her list of admirers grew as well. From her training to cases being successfully solved, Merin Joseph has lots of stories. Her visit to the campus and interaction with the students in turn strengthen the gender justice movement on the campus.
