GOLDEN GIRL CONTEST

JOINTLY ORGANIZED BY

MALABAR GOLD AND TIMES OF INDIA

13 FEBRUARY 2019

“A Girl is not just about her appearance. Every girl is a Super-Girl in her own right, with the number of things she has achieved or is capable of achieving using her innate talents. A lot can be understood about a woman from her talents, or may be not! Life for every Girl is full of promises. And the transition from a College Girl to a smart and successful Woman happens, with tiny steps – grabbing opportunities, developing self-belief and embracing the Winner’s attitude. Golden Girls is one such step that you can choose to take; to stretch yourself and set yourself up, for a rich unforgettable experience. The Times of India and Malabar Gold & Diamond, bring to the College going Girls – Golden Girls, an opportunity to step out from their shy zone and shine their light into the world. Does your voice sound as sweet as the honey dripping from the delicious pancake? Do you dance from your heart and have the charm to sway an audience? Do your cooking / baking skills fill up your home with warmth and love? Or do you have some magic tricks up your sleeve? Talent can be anything. In the field of Arts, Science, Sports, Knowledge, Culinary, Academics, Cultural,...etc. All that we ask is that it should have the potential to carry your winning attitude to the hearts of the judges and entertain the audience..”

With a view support gender justice movements, the Women Cell of EMEA organised Malabar Gold and Times of India jointly organized a “Golden girl contest” on 13th February 2019 to bring out different varieties of talents hidden in each student. Around 60 students participated in the contest from which 5 girls were selected and were given a scholarship amount of 20000/- each.
