March 2015

Introduction

The college has a career Guidance and Placement Cell through which the various job opportunities and the requisite qualifications are making known to the job-seeking candidates. The students of this college hail from a very poor socio economic and cultural background. More than 80% of them are either Scheduled caste or other backward communities (Non-Crème layer). A large number of them do not have a clear idea about the higher study options and employment market. Even though with regular orientation on the opportunities of higher studies and career training programmes, we make our students towards future perfect.

Objectives

- Make sure the 'Equity of access and placement opportunities through availability of appropriate institutional support information'.
- Provide information and guidance for higher studies
- Student's personality development
- Inculcating social values and ability in the students to make them think independently for carrying out social responsibilities
- Ensure the centre as a resource centre of information with the norm education for the job sake.
- Encourage students to appear for the competitive exams in management, computers and public services.

Functions

- Collect information on job avenues and placements of different institutions
- Organize short-term programmes on communicative skills and personality development.
- Organize mock interviews, group discussions, interactions with placed alumina, industrialists etc.

- Organize civil service orientation and coaching programmes to the selected students
- Guide and train the students for appearing the entrance test for higher studies of the reputed State and central universities.
- Collect and disseminate information on various courses of studies, Scholarships, Fellowships and financial assistance etc, available in India and abroad.
- Provide information on competitive examinations conducted by U.P.S.C and State P.S.C.
