

LITVANZA 2019

LITERARY, CULTURAL AND FILM FEST

Day 1

PG Department of English organized the fourth installment of Litvanza, the Literary, Cultural and Film Festival on 21 & 22 February, 2019 at Audio Visual Theatre in EMEA College.

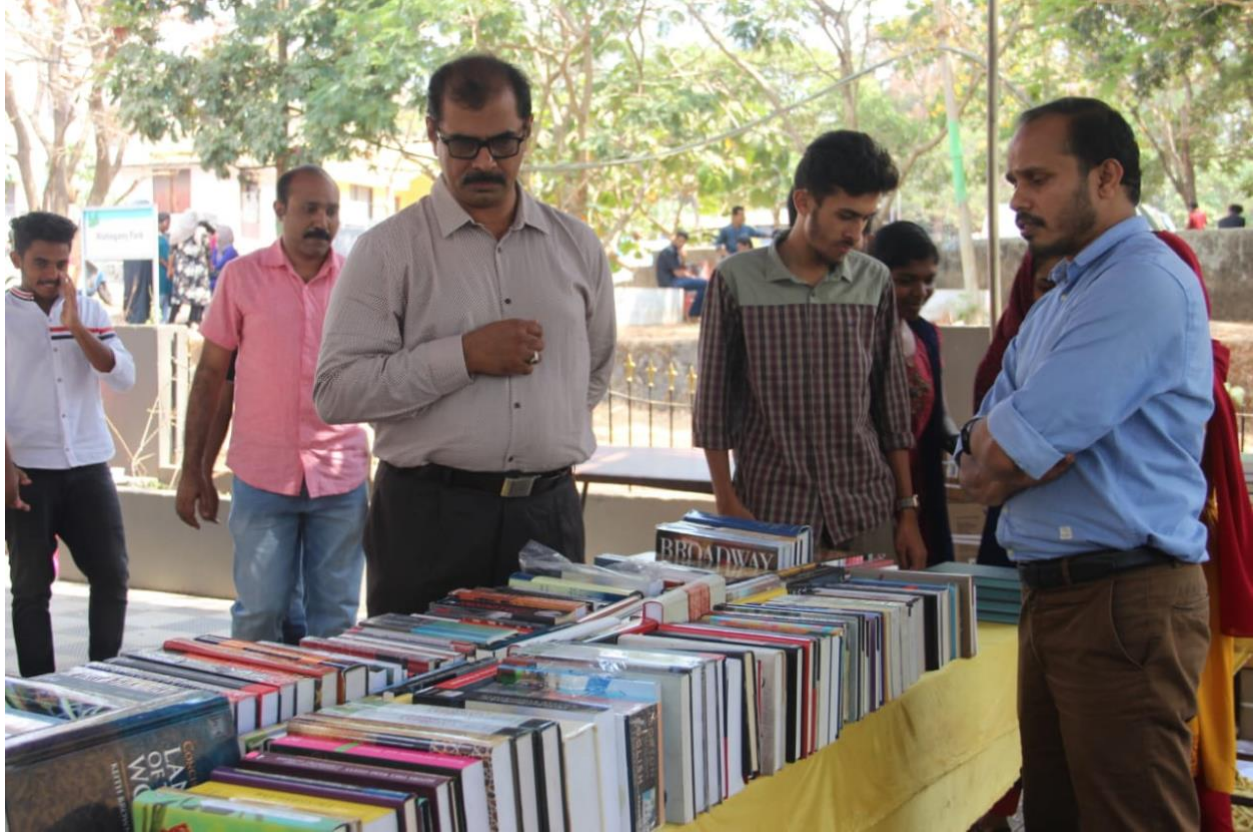

(1)The program was inaugurated by Mrs. Ajithri Babu, a well known Malayalam writer , who talked about 'Women and Literature'. In the session , she talked about the importance of reading and discussed famous works like A God of Small Things(Arundhathi Roy), Vellapokathil(Thakazhi Shivashankara Pillai) etc. She showed her views on the female recent issues like 'Vanitha Mathil' and the drama Kithab(Rafeeq).

(2)A Book Exhibition was also organized in collaboration with Shihab Thangal Memorial Library, EMEA College. Dr. CP Ayoob Keyi, honourable Principal of EMEA College, inaugurated the book expo. The principal distributed awards to the students of the department for their various achievements.

(3) In the second session, the team 'Nadhabrahmam' staged a folk performance.

Day 2

(4) A film festival was organized on the second day of Litvanza. '9 Pen Cinemakal, A Package of Nine Visual Experiences from Nine Women' were screened on the stage by the curator, Archana Padmini. The films were Ruchibedham(10 min), Eye Test(15 min), Ore Udal(10 min), Catharsis (20 min), GI(25 min), Akam(15 min), Indhu(30 min), Rhythm(30 min), Njaval Pazhangal(20 min) and these were directed by Theertha Mythri, Sudha Patmaja Francis, Asha Achy Joseph, Indira, Kunjila, sreedeivi, Anagha Anandh, Sivaranjini, Jeeva K Janardhanan. These nine films conveyed different views on particular issues related with women of the contemporary age.

