1. Introduction

The Career Guidance & Placement Cell and NSS EMEA Unit of EMEA College of Arts and Science, Kondotty, in association with Block Panchayat, Kondotty, organised EMEGA 2026 – Mega Job Fair on 12 September 2026. The initiative was conceived as a structured employment and career-interface programme aimed at bringing job seekers and prospective employers together within an organised institutional setting. The event provided a common platform for candidate registration, interaction with recruiting organisations, preliminary screening, interviews and meaningful career-related engagement. Mr Nahas Sha AA, Assistant Professor, Department of Commerce, coordinated the programme, with Mr Munavar Jasim P.K., Co-Coordinator, Assistant Professor, Department of Commerce, whose efforts contributed significantly to the effective planning, coordination, and execution of the job fair. The initiative further reflected the institution's continuing commitment to enhancing employability, strengthening career guidance, fostering industry–institution interaction, facilitating employment opportunities, and promoting community-oriented educational initiatives.

The Kondotty Block Panchayat, through its official communication dated 6 August 2026, formally requested EMEA College of Arts and Science, Kondotty, to organise a Job Fair for EMEA beneficiaries and the general public. The Block Panchayat also assured its cooperation and support in candidate mobilisation, stakeholder coordination, publicity, and other arrangements necessary for the programme's successful conduct.

Subject: Request to Organise a Job Fair

Respected Sir/Madam,

The Kondotty Block Panchayat requests the EMEA College of Arts and Science to organise a Job Fair for EMEA beneficiaries and the general public, providing a platform to connect eligible job seekers with prospective employers and facilitate suitable employment opportunities.

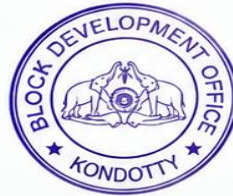

The Block Panchayat assures its full cooperation and necessary support in candidate mobilisation, stakeholder coordination, publicity, and other arrangements required for the successful conduct of the programme.

We look forward to your kind consideration and cooperation in making this initiative a meaningful contribution towards employment generation in the community.

Yours faithfully,

Secretary

2. Objectives of the Mega Job Fair

- To create a direct and accessible interface between job seekers and prospective employers.
- To facilitate recruitment opportunities through organised employer–candidate interaction.
- To provide candidates with exposure to multiple employment sectors and available career pathways.
- To support candidates in navigating registration, screening, interviews and recruitment procedures.
- To strengthen institutional linkages with public bodies, employers and community stakeholders.
- To promote employability, career readiness and informed participation in the contemporary employment landscape.

3. Inaugural and Formal Proceedings

The inaugural session was conducted in accordance with the official programme chart issued for EMEGA 2026.

Dignitaries during EMEGA 2026 – Mega Job Fair: Jb. P. K. Moosa Alias Bappu, Manager; Prof. (Dr.) Riyad A. M., Principal; T. P. Ashrafali, MLA, Kondotty; and other distinguished dignitaries and invited guests.

Address by Shri P. K. C. Abdurahiman, President, Kondotty Block Panchayat, during EMEGA 2026 – Mega Job Fair at EMEA College of Arts and Science, Kondotty, held on 12 September 2026.

Audience during EMEGA 2026 Job Fair.

The formal proceedings brought together representatives of the college, local self-government institutions and student-support systems, reflecting the collaborative nature of the employment initiative. The programme chart serves as the authoritative source for the above designation and participation details.

4. Participant Registration and Reception

A structured registration and reception arrangement was established at the venue. The registration process was supported by visible candidate-registration counters and organised movement of participants through the designated areas. The photographs also document substantial participation during the registration phase, with candidates completing forms, submitting documents and receiving directions regarding the recruitment process.

5. Recruitment and Interview Process

Following the registration process, candidates were directed to designated interview and recruitment spaces arranged for the participating organisations. The recruitment setup followed a well-structured, employer-specific arrangement, with dedicated interview desks and interaction areas facilitating engagement between recruiters and prospective candidates. The process involved direct employer–candidate interaction, including preliminary assessment, professional discussion and interview-based evaluation, thereby providing candidates with meaningful opportunities to engage directly with prospective employers. Participating organisations included Safe Solution, SBI Life Insurance, SkioLo International LLP, Softronics, and Southern Business Corporation, reflecting the diverse range of employment opportunities facilitated through EMEGA 2026.

The data highlights the scale of participation and recruitment outcomes of EMEGA 2026 – Mega Job Fair, with 1,610 registered candidates, 475 active participants, 318 shortlisted candidates, and 71 recruiting companies. These figures provide a concise overview of the programme's reach, candidate engagement, employer participation and recruitment progression.

6. Coordination and Volunteer Support

The smooth conduct of the event required coordinated support across registration, candidate movement, room allocation, reception and employer interaction. The photographs show students and volunteers assisting at registration counters and guiding candidates within the venue. The visible NSS participation and organised help-desk arrangements indicate active student involvement in event management. The coordinated institutional support for the programme included key functionaries such as Dr Haulath K., Assistant Professor, Department of Computer Science and IQAC Coordinator, along with the NSS Coordinator, NCC Coordinator, Office Superintendent and Placement Coordinator. Their collective involvement reflects a systematic administrative framework and effective institutional coordination in the planning and successful execution of the programme.

7. Event Outcomes and Significance

- The event established a direct institutional platform for interaction between job seekers and employers.
- It provided candidates with practical exposure to recruitment procedures, including registration, documentation and interviews.
- The programme strengthened collaboration between the college, local self-government and employment-oriented stakeholders.
- It provided a structured setting for candidates to explore employment opportunities across participating organisations.
- The event reinforced the role of the Career Guidance & Placement Cell in facilitating career-oriented and employability-focused initiatives.

11. Conclusion

EMEGA 2026 – Mega Job Fair, held on 12 September 2026 at EMEA College of Arts and Science, Kondotty, stands as a significant institutional initiative aimed at strengthening employability, expanding career opportunities and fostering meaningful engagement between job seekers and prospective employers. Organised by the Career Guidance & Placement Cell and NSS EMEA Unit of EMEA College of Arts and Science, in association with Kondotty Block Panchayat, the programme brought together institutional stakeholders, recruiting organisations, candidates and student volunteers within a well-structured recruitment framework. The systematic arrangements for registration, candidate facilitation, employer interaction, interviews and on-site coordination contributed to the smooth and effective conduct of the event. Beyond its immediate employment-oriented objectives, the initiative reflects the institution's broader commitment to career development, industry–institution interaction, youth empowerment and community engagement. EMEGA 2026 thus exemplifies the institution's sustained efforts to translate academic learning into meaningful career pathways and to extend its educational mission through socially relevant and employment-focused initiatives.
